COP TURNED COMEDIAN MIKE ARMSTONG

ONE NIGHT ONLY!

He Has The Right to Remain Silly. The former lawman has found a more fitting career in comedy. Armstrong was the first headlining comedian at Mason City Limits, which celebrated their 16th anniversary earlier this year.

"I have never laughed so hard at any comedian as I had tonight. This guy was a total riot and told some good cop stories. The crowd was always laughing." - Real Police.net

"Mike was fabulous - so funny, clean and just a fun guy all around - his laugh is so contagious, he doesn't even have to tell jokes - if he just stood up there and laughed the whole audience would laugh with him and not even notice he wasn't telling jokes. Love that guy - and this jokes ARE hilarious!" -Debbie Richardson, JR's Last Laugh Comedy Club - Erie PA.

TIM CAVANAGH

So, did you hear the one about the high school teacher who walked into a comedy club--and they hired him? That's where the Tim Cavanagh comedy story begins. For a full year, Tim taught teenagers by day. By night, he sang his funny songs in Chicago comedy clubs. "Not surprisingly, I found the biggest difference between the classroom and the nightclub was the drunks--which I generally let the principal handle," Tim says.

Tim is a Bob & Tom All Star and is a talented performer, combining crowd interaction, original songs and downright silliness.
